

QUICK FACTS

According to the U.S. Foreign Military Training Report for FY 2014 and FY 2015 (actual and planned):

$2.5 M

Total amount the U.S. plans to spend on cybersecurity training for 2014 and 2015

31

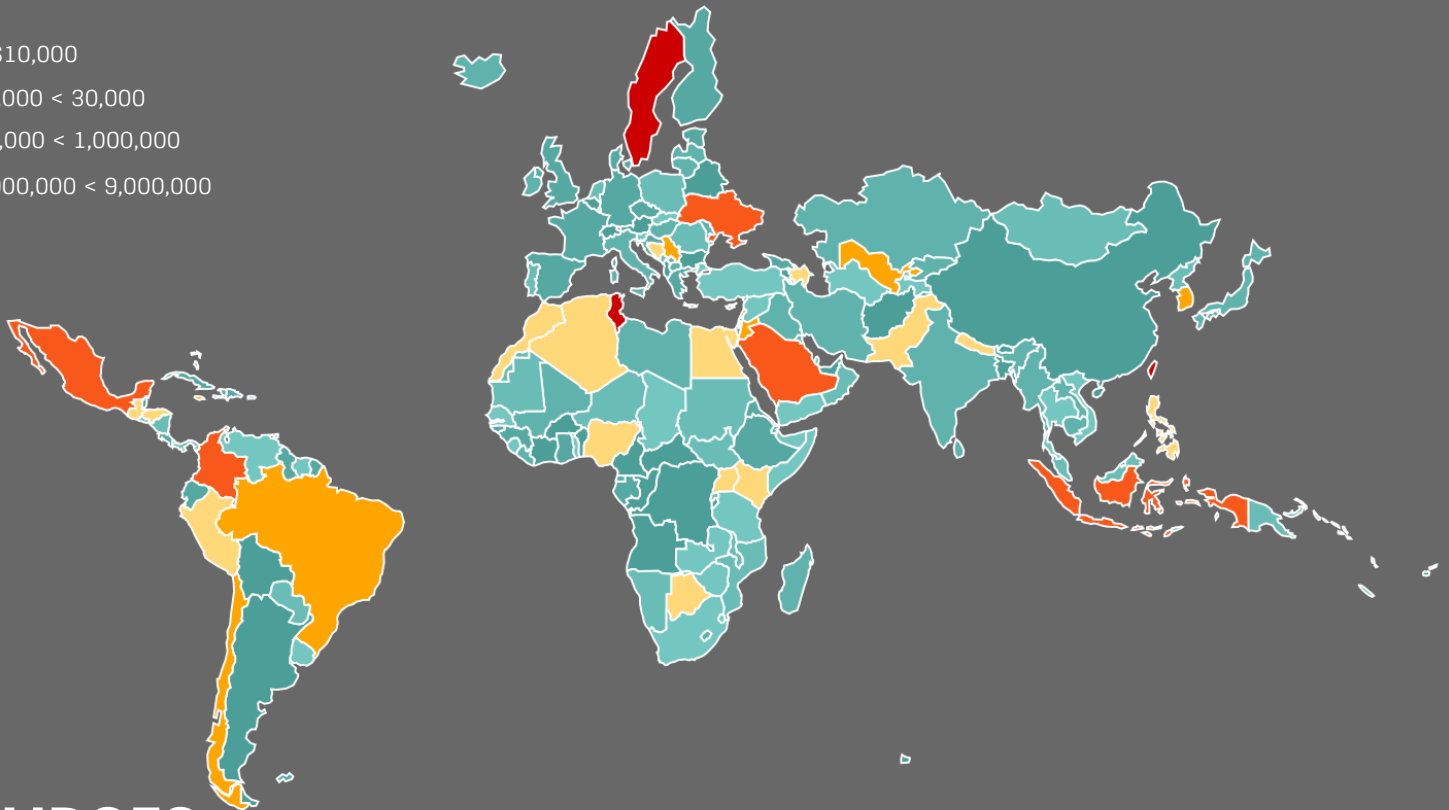

Number of countries that are planned to receive cybersecurity training for 2014 and 2015

350%

Percent increase in spending on cybersecurity training from 2014 actual to 2014/2015 planned

RECIPIENT COUNTRIES

- < $10,000
- 10,000 < 30,000
- 30,000 < 1,000,000
- 1,000,000 < 9,000,000

COURSES

Cyber Security for Information Leaders

A technical course available to both military and civilian leaders that covers firewalls and intrusion detection, transmission security, and encryption and key management.

Cyber Operations

A 7 week course aimed at building partner capacity in Latin America that covers cryptography fundamentals, cryptography implementation and network vulnerability and security.

International Information Warfare

An MS offered by the Naval Postgraduate School that focuses on the theoretical, technical and operational aspects of Information Warfare and Information Operations. The MS requires specific courses on cyber and network security.

